In the Volunteer Spotlight: Damita Faulk

Hometown: Orlando, Florida

Role at UO: General Manager, Merchandise - Islands of Adventure

Years with UO: 26 years

Volunteer Organizations: The Salvation Army

Years Volunteering with this organization? 20+

What does your volunteer role consist of? I assist wherever I'm needed. A good portion of my time with The Salvation Army is spent assisting with the registering of families, collecting and preparing, as well as the distribution of gifts for the Angel Tree Program. The Angel Tree Program provides clothes, shoes and gifts to underprivileged children in our community at Christmas.

What is your most memorable volunteering experience? Angel Tree distribution is always a treat. The joy of knowing you played a small part in making a child's Christmas is merry. The serving of Thanksgiving Dinner is another one. And not everyone you are serving is homeless. It's a reminder to be grateful… to whom much is given, much is required.

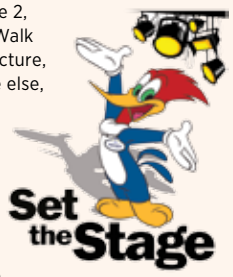
UO Parking Now Complimentary After 6PM for All Guests

Universal Orlando is excited to now offer complimentary parking to all guests that arrive after 6:00pm every day. CityWalk has become even more popular in recent years as we've grown its dining and entertainment options. Universal Orlando is now making CityWalk even more accessible to our guests by eliminating after 6:00pm parking fees (not valid on Halloween Horror Nights).

Are YOU Looking the Part While On Stage?

Remember, every guest area is your work location. It is important to remember that part of delivering world-class service to our guests means consistently presenting ourselves and our resort in the most professional manner possible.

This means always adhering to our appearance guidelines and making sure our entire resort is show ready. Whether you go home through Gate 2, via the CityWalk parking structure, or anywhere else, as long as our resort is open to guests, Team Members must stay in Wardrobe compliance in areas that guests can enter or even view.



It may be tempting to remove your name badge, un-tuck your shirt, or use your cell phone to call someone after your shift ends, but guests have no idea that you have just clocked out; doing either can disrupt their experience - or potentially make them feel that you don't care about them. It only takes a few minutes to get to a backstage area, and our guests are worth the wait!
